

WHAT IF HEROES WERE NOT WELCOME HOME?

Examine the prejudice that Japanese American veterans from Hood River, Oregon experienced upon their return home from serving our country in World War II.

(left) Harry Tamura and army buddy visit his family at Tule Lake concentration camp, Northern California (1943). (right) Sagie Nshioka was surprised to see General Dwight Eisenhower while he was recovering from one of sixteen surgeries at Fitzsimmons Medical Center in Denver, Colorado. (1945)

OPENS JULY 10th, 2014 at the Klamath County Museum

1451 Main Street

541-883-4208 for information

Opening reception featuring Co-Curator Linda Tamura
July 10, 2014 @ 7pm, FREE

